TYPE	Brand Identity
CONTENT	Logo Stationery Patterns Promotional material

ABOUT

Taste of Paradise is a food festival aimed at the “foodie” crowd, showcasing dishes from the finest new and established restaurants in Hawaii.

The festival was aimed at young adults so the branding had to convey youthfulness and fun.

The motif for the branding was derived from the Bird of Paradise flower or Strelitzia. The logo-mark consists of the two plants with the ends taking the shape of a fork and knife converging to form a plate. The logotype is styled in a handwritten script to convey the casual, yet classy atmosphere of the event.
